You will be getting an email from Royal Canin with your login credentials. Your username will be: “JANEDOE” it should allow you to create your own password but if they ask for one, it will be “Welcome123!” Once you create your account, you can place your order.

It should allow you to have it delivered to your house but if it doesn't, you can call account services at (844) 673-3772 and give them your shipping address. We are working on overcoming any shipping glitches right now. The shelter program gives us larger "professional" bags, so it may have a little different look.
